LOGIC

21. Consider the following numbers:

28, 29, 36, 43, 55

We want to order them so that each odd number is in an odd position, and each even number is in an even position. How many ways are there to order them given this condition?

A. 3

B. 24

C. 12

D. 5

E. 6